

Australia - Barossa

2.8.1

Fill in the blank.

The 4 main varieties Australia is known for are:

1. _____, grown here and practically everywhere.
2. _____, called Shiraz.
3. _____, also grown in the Rhone, the US, and called Garnacha in Spain.
4. _____, the same grape we known in Germany.

_____ has some of the oldest vines and fantastic Cabernet Sauvignon, Shiraz, and Grenache.

In the _____, right next to Barossa, and _____, they grow Riesling. Here they are low alcohol, dry styles.

Cristie Norman's Online Wine Course for Complete Beginners

New Zealand - Marlborough

2.8.2

Fill in the blank.

New Zealand is known for _____.

Marlborough versions have an herbal note that expresses itself as _____

_____. It's extremely _____ and _____.

There is also a lot of high quality Pinot Noir made, especially from _____

_____.

Cristie Norman's Online Wine Course for Complete Beginners

South Africa

2.8.3

Fill in the blank.

South Africa grows a lot of quality wines, but is best known for _____
_____. It tastes like crisp, yellow apples.

South Africa is also known for _____ and _____.

Cristie Norman's Online Wine Course for Complete Beginners