

Northern Italy

2.3.1

Fill in the blank.

_____ is the most important region in Northwest Italy, it's famous for _____, a grape variety with high acid and high tannin.

_____ and _____ are two important regions in this area.

_____ is a sweet wine with a light spritz.

_____ is from the Northeast with notes of red apple skins and peanut shells.

Cristie Norman's Online Wine Course for Complete Beginners

Central Italy

2.3.2

Fill in the blank.

_____ is the main grape variety grown in Tuscany. Its two most famous regions are _____ and _____.

Unlike Brunello di Montalcino and Chianti, Super Tuscans are made from single or multiple varieties like those from _____ as well as _____.

Cristie Norman's Online Wine Course for Complete Beginners

Southern Italy

2.3.3

Fill in the blank.

Two great wines come from _____, an Italian region on an active _____.

These wines are _____ a white wine made from Carricante and _____ made from _____.

The red wines share some similarities to _____ with more mineral driven characteristics.

Cristie Norman's Online Wine Course for Complete Beginners